offered for sale by Messrs. McKay & Campbell, at their Auction Salesrooms, in Meeting street opposite the Pavilion Hotel. NATIONAL BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA IN CHARLES-

Tox.-It will be remembered that subscriptions to the capital stock of this bank were made in this city in February last to the extent of 573 shares, the rest of the capital being promised from abroad. Owing, however, to the distrust created by the es tablishment of military governments in the Southern States, capitalists declined to risk their money here, and the project, although not entirely aban doned, has been postponed to a more propitious time. Meanwhile all sub-cribers who may wish to withdraw their subscriptions can do so and receive back the instalment of five dollars per share, by calling at the office of WILLIAM B. HERIOT & Co. No. 9 Broad street, and surrendering the Commis sioner's receipts.

East Bay.-The workmen have been busy for some days in widening and straightening this street, but these preparations are now completed, the proper alignment has been made, and we will soon see East Bay in a better condition than it has appeared for years. This movement had been conemplated for some time, and the paving of the et was delayed until the work was completed but the contractor has already ornamented the street with piles of stones, and operations will be commenced in a few days. The same good signs are visible in Broad street, and from the known ergetic character of the contractor, we can conidently predict that both Broad and East Bay streets will be covered with a firm layer of cobbl stones before the summer is over.

A VICTIM OF MISPLACED CONFIDENCE.—A fond ness for pets is a weakness of human nature, but they are generally chosen from the canine or feline species, and have sufficient intelligence to know the hand that careeses them. There are, however, some persons who prefer to lavish their kindness on animals or reptiles that require con-siderable training to make them tractable, and who never become thoroughly tamed. This conduct is to be expected from enthusiastic natura tate; but when private individuals undertake to control these beasts, and to train them up in the way they should go, they find to their sorrow that if dogs delight to bark and bits, other animals have the same propensities. A gentleman in this city spent much time and labor in endeavoring to educate a young alligator, and had succeeded in overcoming its natural characteristics so far that he has never had any existence, except in the brain ess and pet it, and could even car ry it in his pocket. Unfortunately the ungrateful beast forgot its benefactor, and, while the owner was feeding it, turned and bit his hand severely ies were soon applied, and the wound now improving, but the pet reptile has been panished to parts unknown, where alligators can bite comething less censitive than human fiesh.

THE GRAIN CROPS OF THE SOUTH .- The

wheat from Georgia, recently shipped from this port, has made its appearance on the New York Corn Exchange, and has caused some excitement among the grain merchants of that city. The imon among the business men is that the ening of the harvest will advance northward at the rate of twelve miles a day, and in the tide-water regions of Virginia the harvest will comce about the 15th instant. New Southern thest and four will soon be in the Northern markets. The Norfolk Day Book remarks that cotton tobacco and sugar, therefore, bid fair to considerations in compari son with the grain crops. We are informed that wheat, which is shown to be of a superior quality to that raised at the North, can be cultivated in a comparatively short season and with few laborers. We notice that Southern flour always commands the highest price in the Northern cities, and its tion is unlimited in all the Southern counfry. If the large plants tions were divided into small farms emigration would eventually largely supply the want of negro labor, and the usual crops would probably then be made to pay. But and the best of the labor now on the ground; and such an array of native talent, it is difficult to enthis will be answered by devoting the best lands in which now are in the largest demand.

THE HARMONIONS.—Hibernian Hall was filled last night with a very good audience, who had come hither to do homage to native talent. Our native ors of the "black art" can hold their own with Conserve, Camenara's, Buckler's or any troupe of minstrels. In many respects they are superior to the foreign article; for hav-ing hown the "institution" before civil tights came into vogue, they have caught his dialect, part, walk and conversation, and imitation, and not a ridiculous parody on the gennine "Jim Crow." The troupe has some excellent valces, and nimble-limbed, not ungraceful denors. We were pleased to have several of our old friends excellently rendered, as for instance "The Yacant Chair," "Bow your Boat," and others. "The Rival Lovers in Trouble" is a capital buriesque on the price fight—more innocent and infinitely more among than the celebrated "mill" of which the telegraph informs us this morning. There were no ribs broken, and no faces jellied. They only fought five rounds and when time was called for the sixth both sponges were thrown up, bottle-holders and principals all being simultaneously exhausted.

The great treat of the evening, however, was the new song, "Can't wash him white," which is brimfull of humor, and was excellently sung by Mr. Boros, who has the rare faculty of distinct n, and enhances his performance by graceful and appropriate actions.

We would advise all who want to forget the hard times, and drive away dull care, to go to Hibernian Hall on Saturday night, and hear the Harmoneons

DEATH OF AN OLD CHARLESTON MERCHANT. One by one the old merchants of Charleston are passing away. They have been bright patterns of business integrity, and have, by their advice and example, aided many to rise in commercial life, but they have now left this busy scene to receive the well done in the better world above. Mr. W. C. Dures, the subject of this sketch, came to this city when but fi teen years of age, and entered upon that business which he ultimately brought to shigh state of perfection. The house of W. C. Duxes & Co., has been favorably known to the cotton planters of the interior for nearly a half entury. It was built up by the influence and exertions of the senior partner, and though its functions were interrupted by the war, the business was resumed at its termination, and, at the time of Mr. Dunes' death, was in a flourishing condi-

Mr. Dores connected himself early in life with interest in its welfare. He was elected an elder in this church, and held that position at the time of his death. For a number of years Mr. Dukes was a director in the Bank of the State of South Caroline, and in the Charleston Insurance and Trust Company, besides being connected with many business and commercial corporations. The funeral services were performed at the Second Presbyterian Church by the pastor, the Rev. Tuos. Y. SETTE, and the church was crowded with a large and sorrowful audience, who were well discourse was suited to the occasion, and Dr. SMITH spoke feelingly of the ties that had been severed by the dark angel of death.

GEORGIA STATE LOTTERY.—Our readers will see by the advertisement in to-day's issue that an agency for this lottery has been opened in this city and tickets will be sold by Mr. Jno. KERR, Manager for Charleston. The Legislature of Georgia, in December, 1866, granted a lottery privilege to the Grand Master in order to enable him to erect a Masonic Orphans' Home. It is a praiseworthy object, and as the drawings will be conducted on the fairest principles there need be no fear of any attempt on the part of the Managers to defraud the public of their money.

THE FLORIDA RAILBOAD .- The Fernandia Cou rier says that this road is fast approaching completion, and it is expected that the entire line will be in operation in a few weeks time. The iron draw bridge over the Amelia River is nearly finished, and the company have received a sufficient quantity of rails from Hilton Head to complete both the road and the turnouts. A number of white laborers have been procured at Charleston. and more are contracted for. Arrangements have been made for the erection of extensive docks and storehouses at the termination of the track, in the harbor, and the company will spare no pains of labor to put the road in perfect order.

OLD MASONIC RELICE.-We mentioned some weeks ago an account of an ancient Lodge in Scotland that had been in existence for many centuries and was probably the oldest that is now extant Although the New World cannot compete with the Old in this respect, it has many Masonic relica that savor somewhat of antiquity, and have been used by men eminent as politicians and war riors, and who stood high in the Order.

At the recent Masonic celebration in Winchester the apron worn by the orator, WILLIAM H. TRAV-ERS, Esq., formerly belonged to General George Washington, and was presented to him by General LAFAYETTE, and has beautifully wrought on it in silver and gold the flags of France and the United States combined, and forms by their combination the principal Masonic emblems. This apron was presented to Mount Nebo Lodge, of that place, by one of the Washington family in 1811, and has ever since been carefully preserved by the Lodge. The trowel used in the exercises was presented and used by Governor Levi Winder in laying the corner-stone of the old Masonic Hall in Baltimore in 1814, and afterwards was used in laying the corner-stone of the Washington Monumen of Baltimore, and also of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Depot. It is of solid gold, very heavy, with an ivory handle, and worth at present rates s nice little sum.

MAYOR'S COURT, June 18 .- Julia Smoke, the colored woman, who some time ago jumped from a second story window after attempting to steal a bundle of clothes, and who was injured sufficient to be sent to the hospital, made her appearance again this morning, looking as good as new, and was turned over to a magistrate by direction of the prosecutor in that case.

Margaret Ann Smith, a colored female fightest who had just come out of a scrimmage with only dress enough to make her an attractive character in the "Black Crook," was arraigned for disturb ing the public peace, and was fined $5, which, as she don't intend to pay, didn't excite her much. Jeff. Williams, a colored man, whose affection for roast pork prompled him to steal a parcel of pigs from Paradise Island, was locked up until an opportunity offers to introduce him to a magistrate. Richard Jenkins, a colored youth, of tender year and affectionate disposition, who walked into tavern and made love to the money drawer, but was detected before he pocketed any of the contents, was imprisoned five days, notwithstanding his well told story of an imaginary brown boy, who sent him in and was waiting outside to receive the

U. S. COURT-Hon. GEO, S. BRYAN presiding .-WILMOT G. DESAUSSURE presented the petition of Mr. WM. ELLIOTT, a brother of General STEPHEN ELLIOTT, to be admitted to practice in the U.S. Courts, and, on his motion, the petition was granted and the petitioner admitted,

It appears from the following comm that the Hebrew Government in the United States any foundation. The extract was taken from the New York Sun.

DEAR SIR: Having noticed in your edition of this morning the publication of a rumor going the rounds of the papers, to the effect that there is a Hebrew Government in the United States, about to call for loans, and issue bonds, in the name of the Issaeltish Government, for the purpose of siding in a restoration to the Holy Land, I take leave to form you that such rumor is totally untrue and unfounded. I receive every Jewish paper published in this country, and have associated with the various institutions of our people, and am not only ignorant of any such Government, but likewise fully satisfied that no plan of that nature is n existence or contemplated. The only association connected with Palestine is a society formed for the purpose of forwarding money with a view of assisting the poor located there; this has been in working order for many years, and accomplished onsiderable good.

Yours, respectfully, M. H. MYERS, Minister Hebrew Congregation. [COMMUNICATED.]

Editors News :- On Tuesday evening, the 11th inst., a large and select audience assembled in the Hibernian Hall, to witness an entertainment given by the Harmonions, and we have no hesitation in saying that it was one of the best entertainments tion at present is, how to make the most of the kind ever witnessed in this city. Among ter into particulars, but one could but admire the the South to crops that can be essily raised, and effect produced by the combination of sweet sounds. The clear, soft and sweet soprano of GLINERER, mingling with the fine tenor of ANTHO-NY, and the rich bass of Avon, produced such dulcet sounds as has seldom been our fortune to listen to. "Father Come Home," was rendered with masterly skill and thrilling effect, and we predict that if Mr. GLIMMER continues to pursue his present avocation, he will yet make his mark in the musical world. Rig-digdig, by Harry Like, was received with shouts of laughter, which were soon changed into sighs by the familiar lullaby of the chorus, while Boycz, the the familiar lullaby of the chorus, while Boyce, the irrepressible comedian, succeeded in keeping the audience in a continuous roar; his perfornmance on the .5 grass mouth-organ," penny whistle and bellows, were truly wonderful, while his dancing was only equalled by that of Mahon and Eaton This Troupe of performers are, we learn, entirely amateurs and natives, and as such deserve the ncouragement of the community. Let us, therefore, show our appreciation of native talent by giving to these young men our encouragement and patronage; they deserve it, and the people cannot do better than to give them a call. We hope to see an overwhelming house to-morrow evening. All who call will enjoy a pleasant even-

Hudson, N. Y 1y A National Medicine. One can hardly pick up a newspaper or turn a street corner now-s-days that he does not find, staring him in the face, the announcement that Prof. So-and-So has just discovered a medicine which is a panaces for all the ills that flesh is, or may be heir to. These "wonderful" discoveries usually have an existence of a few months then disappear from public notice. The reason of their sudden extinguishment is apparent. They were hum bugs. At the outset all medicinal preparations have an equal chance for success, as all are equally unknown but the chaff is soon winnowed from the grain by the practical test which an unprejudiced public applies all things. There are but lew preparations of medicin which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any length of time. One of the few which w have now in mind, and which has been a long time familiar to nearly every household in the land, is the celebrated HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Their almost universal sale and use, and their emphatic enent from all portions of the country, compel the admission that they must be a specific for the ailments for which they are recommended. Letters before us attest their efficacy in diseases of the throat, bowels and liver. In that truly terrible complaint, dyspepsia, they are regarded as a sure cure. In Pittsburgh, where thes Bitters are manufacthred, their sale for home use is imnense. This fact alone speaks volumes in their favor .-Extracts from the Musostine Courier, Iowa, Feb. 7, 1867.
